

| One Way to Earn the Democracy Badges as a Multi-Level Troop  | What Daisies Do                | What Brownies Do                            | What Juniors Do                             | What Cadettes Do                          | What Seniors Do                           | What Ambassadors Do                       |
|---|---------------------------------------|--|--|--|--|--|
| Girls work together to plan a visit to their town hall or city hall to include meeting with the mayor or a person on the town or city council. Girls plan for what they want to see, what questions to ask and who will ask them.   | 1. Find out about local government    | 1. Find out about local government                 | 1. Find out about local government                 | 1. Find out about local government               | 1. Find out about local government               | 1. Find out about local government               |
| Girls work together to plan an in-person or virtual visit to their State Capital. If possible, girls can set up a meeting with their legislator, a former legislator, a legislative intern, or even the Governor or a staff member. Girls plan for what they want to learn about, what questions to ask and who will ask them.  | 2. Find out about state government    | 2. Find out about state government                 | 2. Find out about state government                 | 2. Find out about state government               | 2. Find out about state government               | 2. Find out about state government               |
| Girls learn about their Senators and Representatives, who they are and where they are from in their state. They learn what issues they are working on. If possible, girls set up a time to talk to one of them or a member of their staff. Girls hold a discussion on one of the issues to learn about different views.   | 3. Find out about national government | 3. Find out about our country's legislative branch | 3. Find out about our country's legislative branch | 3. Find out about the federal legislative branch | 3. Find out about the federal legislative branch | 3. Find out about the federal legislative branch |
| Girls learn about the President, Vice President and fifteen Cabinet-level executive departments. They learn what the President can and cannot do and what the requirements are to be President. They learn about Presidents through history and if there has been a President or other executive from their state.  |                                       | 4. Find out about our country's executive branch   | 4. Find out about our country's executive branch   | 4. Find out about the federal executive branch   | 4. Find out about the federal executive branch   | 4. Find out about the federal executive branch   |
| Girls visit a local court in session or virtually to see what happens in a court and interview a judge, if possible. They learn about the judicial branch of the U.S. government, and the Supreme Court. They learn about the women on the Supreme Court. They learn about federal courts and where they are located in their state. Girls research a ruling currently or recently before the Supreme Court and talk about what they would do if they were a Supreme Court Judge by holding a mock court session. |                                       | 5. Find out about our country's judicial branch    | 5. Find out about our country's judicial branch    | 5. Find out about the federal judicial branch    | 5. Find out about the federal judicial branch    | 5. Find out about the federal judicial branch    |